FAQs ABOUT AIRA

What is AIRA?

The American Immunization Registry Association (AIRA) is a membership organization that exists to support and promote the development and implementation of immunization information systems (IIS) as a crucial tool in preventing and controlling vaccine-preventable diseases.

How does AIRA serve the IIS community?

AIRA provides a forum through which members combine efforts, share knowledge, and promote activities to advance IIS and immunization programs. AIRA is a resource for a strong, unified voice for standards, policy and funding, data exchange standards development, information sharing, and education/training for IIS managers and staff.

Who are AIRA's members?

AIRA's members are IIS staff working in health departments, IIS implementers, and nonprofit organizations such as community advocacy and education coalitions. AIRA members also work with our Corporate Partners, who are for-profit organizations committed to AIRA's mission. Currently, there are more than 1,000 members of AIRA representing over 106 organizations.

How do members participate in AIRA's efforts?

AIRA's initiatives are created and carried out by members who participate in AIRA workgroups. Workgroup participants convene during regular calls. Click to view all AIRA's workgroups.

"AIRA plays a meaningful role in facilitating projects for the greater IIS community. Colorado's IIS is stronger because of guidance put forth by AIRA."

Heather Roth, MA
Immunization Branch Chief
